EDA concerns over 'devolution' bid

EAST Devon Alliance have expressed their concerns over the Devon and Somerset 'devolution' plans and questioned the democracy of the bid.

In a statement the EDA said: "To most people devolution implies greater local involvement – local democratic power. The process being followed for the Heart of the South West devolution has no democratic element at all."

The statement cites the absence of public and elected councillor consultation as being the main factors in their concern over the proposition.

The Heart of the South West Local Enterprise Partnership, a voluntary partnership between local authorities and businesses, are in discussions to devolve power from Whitehall to local authorities in Devon and Somerset. The full East Devon District Council will debate the deal on December 16th.

The council's cabinet unanimously supported recommendations, drawn up from a joint overview and scrutiny committee on December 2nd, on how to proceed in discussions.

Private meetings

At the moment HotSW meetings are private and there are no agendas or minutes available to the public or press. It has been suggested that the government's guidance is to keep devolution planning confidential.

The bid was originally going to be submitted on December 18th but the deadline has now been extended to January, with a deal expected to be agreed with central government in March.

While not necessarily opposing the bid, EDA are calling for the HotSW devolution planning process being more open and democratic from now on including public and elected representatives being regularly consulted and decisions involving the use of public funds to be made in public by accountable, elected representatives.

On the lack of public consultation, EDDC issued a statement which read: "It is too early to say what form of public consultation will take place, as the bid still needs to be considered by full council next week on December 16th.

"The document has already been discussed by the council's overview and scrutiny committees, who, together with the East Devon District Council cabinet, all recommended that we move ahead with the process.

"However, given the implications for all of East

TOP STORIES FROM ACROSS EAST DEVON AND SOUTH SOMERSET

EAST DEVON RD&E trust to take over town hospitals

EAST Devon community hospitals look set to come under new management next year.

Northern, Eastern and Western Devon Clinical Commissioning Group (NEW Devon CCG) has decided to "proceed towards contract award for community services to the Royal Devon and Exeter NHS Foundation Trust (RDEFT)".

This decision doesn't confirm that the contract will be awarded, being subject to "further detailed due diligence in advance of the final decision".

RDEFT chief executive Angela Pedder, said: "Aligning community services in Exeter, East and Mid Devon with RDEFT is an important step in developing streamlined pathways of care for local people."

"Working closely with Northern Devon Healthcare NHS Trust (which currently manages the hospitals), we will now develop plans to safely transfer the services over the coming months."

"We look forward to welcoming and working with the community services staff, who bring with them a wealth of knowledge and experience."

NDHT Chief Executive Alison Diamond said: "We will be playing our part to ensure that the strong foundations we have put in place over the last five years can be built upon and the high-quality services continue to develop and improve."

AXMINSTER Works starts on surgery extension

AXMINSTER Medical Practice is bracing itself and its patients for disruption as building work is set to start.

An added floor at the back of the building will mean seven new consulting rooms to meet increasing demand. The plans can be viewed on the practice noticeboards, and patients have been warned of disruption.

Two retired GPs, Dr Simon Hodges and Dr James Vann, are overseeing the project with practice manager Linda Coombs.

From the editor's chair Hope for our hospitals

THE news that the trust which runs the Royal Devon & Exeter Hospital is to take over the running of East Devon's community hospitals has been welcomed by those who fought so hard to retain in-patient beds.

There has been widespread criticism of the consultation process leading up to the decision to dispense with beds in Axminster and Ottery St Mary Hospital, dismissed by many as "far-cical", a view shared by this column.

The RD&E trust taking over the community hospitals does not mean beds will return to Axminster and Ottery, but there is a glimmer of hope in some quarters that the increasing pressure on beds at the RD&E in Exeter may necessitate patients being sent back to these hospitals to recover.

The greater hope is that the services at the community hospitals, especially at Axminster which is well equipped, will be developed to help protect its long term future.

At the height of the battle to save the beds in Axminster hundreds turned out at two public meetings to express their concern. Those who led this campaign are hoping to call another public meeting in the new year so that the people of Axminster can come up with ideas of how they would like to see their hospital developed. There will be no shortage of ideas...

■ So Somerset County Council has ditched its contract with Southwest One (a joint venture involving IBM) to deliver a range of public services.

The £14 million deal was intended to save the council taxpayers of Somerset significant sums.

It didn't work out and the deal is now off. It was predicted that the arrangement would save SCC £180 million over 10 years. The council are not saying what the savings have been (why not?) but – you will not be surprised to hear – they are significantly lower than predicted.

SOUTH SOMERSET Council to bring services in-house

SOMERSET County Council has decided to withdraw early from its contract with Southwest One and bring services back in-house.

Southwest One is a joint venture between IBM, Avon & Somerset Police, Taunton Deane Borough Council and Somerset County Council. It was established in 2007 to deliver a range of support services to the local authority partners.

All Southwest One partners have been considering their options ahead of the contract's scheduled end date of November 2017.

The county council pays £14million a year to Southwest One for all the services it currently delivers to the authority. The council expects these costs to fall significantly once it has regained control of those services.

The contract is due to expire in November 2017 but, following a decision by the council's Cabinet, all services will be brought back in-house within the next 12 months.

The returning of services will involve around 180 seconded staff returning to the council, along with a number of other staff who have been hired directly by Southwest One to provide services to the county council.

UNISON has called for the county council to learn the lessons "of the failure of the joint venture". The public service union opposed the joint venture, arguing that the procurement process was flawed and that predicted savings were over optimistic and unlikely to be realised.

Those savings were predicted to be £180million over 10 years, and while no statement has been made by the council on what savings have been made, they are expected to be only a fraction of this amount.

Belinda Burton, UNISON Somerset County Branch Secretary, said: "This is a sad but predictable end to what was always an unrealistic joint venture, driven by the ambition of former senior council officers and councillors, and a naïve belief that a partnership with a multi-national company of the scale of IBM could only be a benefit to Somerset."

"Unfortunately it is the public of Somerset who have borne the burden of its failure."

"Our priority is the staff members that were seconded to Southwest One and the services that they deliver. We are concerned for our members' job security and we will be working in partnership with SCC on behalf of our members to make sure all their concerns are addressed during this process."

OTTERY ST MARY £52k cost of West Hill going it alone

OTTERY St Mary could lose £52,000 per year if it's decided that West Hill can establish their own parish council.

The loss of around 25 per cent of the precept would result in the Ottery Town, North and Tipton St John wards footing the bill with the town's precept needing to rise by 53 per cent to cover the loss.

Councillors debated for nearly an hour whether or not to back the bid for West Hill to break away.

The final decision will be made by EDDC but Ottery Town Council has set up a working party to investigate the proposal and to report back to EDDC the council's formal view.

EAST DEVON EDA concerns over 'devolution' bid

EAST Devon Alliance have expressed their concerns over the Devon and Somerset 'devolution' plans and questioned the democracy of the bid.

In a statement the EDA said: "To most people devolution implies greater local involvement – local democratic power. The process being followed for the Heart of the South West devolution has no democratic element at all."

SEATON Legion row with market traders

THE Royal British Legion's Seaton branch has accused some of the town's artisan market traders of "bad manners and lack of respect".

In a letter to Pulman's View, RBL member Ray Evans claims that a number of traders emerged at an RBL event in the town hall and demanded the venue be cleared.

The RBL staged a Christmas-themed table top sale in Seaton Town Hall on Saturday December 5th, coinciding with the outdoor artisan market.

Mr Evans said that the RBL event was scheduled to finish at 12.30pm, with the hall to be cleared by 1pm.

He said: "We were doing good business when traders suddenly appeared on the scene, some demanding we clear our sale tables as they were booked in." Mr Evans said that RBL left the hall at about 12.30pm.

He has since told Pulman's View that he has accepted an apology from artisan market organisers, adding that he has nothing to hide and was happy for his views to be put in the public domain.

The artisan market is organised by Seaton Town Development Team, part of Seaton Town Council. The council was asked for comment, but had not responded at the time of going to press.

Primary school pupils see inner workings of council

YEAR Six pupils at Awliscombe Primary School, near Honiton, took part in an exciting event at East Devon District Council to experience first-hand how the council is run.

The Takeover Challenge Day, which is a national event, aims to get children and young people involved with how public service decisions are made. It also provides organisations, such as local authorities, with a fresh perspective on how they are run.

Awliscombe was one of four schools taking part from across East Devon and the children participated in a number of activities including mock food hygiene inspections and recycling workshops.

EDDC chairman, Councillor Stuart Hughes, chaired a debate about beach huts and said the children were delightful and that they picked up the art of debating very quickly.

Cllr Hughes said: "I was greatly impressed by the logic and common sense they applied to the topic being discussed. They brought fresh and original opinions to a sensitive topic."

"I would say we have many councillors in the making. It is always a pleasure to open the council's doors to local schools and to introduce them to the inner workings of the district authority."

THE Mayor of Honiton, Cllr Caroline Kolek, recently switched on the Christmas lights at the Christmas Tree Carol service on Friday, December 4th.

The event was well attended by local primary school children who read Christmas poems and joined in the singing of many traditional Christmas carols.

This was followed by the switching on of the lights on the tree outside St Paul's Church and the mayor then gave out sweets to all the children.

The town council would like to thank the Honiton and District

Chamber of Commerce for providing the tree and their help to make this such a successful event.

The mayor said: "It was a privilege to be asked to switch on the lights and I thoroughly enjoyed the event, especially the children's participation on the night."

EDA concerns over 'Heart of the South West' bid

DEVON'S residents it would seem appropriate to undertake a consultation and the council would fully support this process."

At a meeting on December 10th, Devon county councillors also backed a proposal to consult the public on the devolution plans.

Proposed amendment

The proposal, from Cllr Claire Wright, was an amendment to a series of resolutions agreed at Cabinet the day before. Writing on her blog, Cllr Wright said: "It was inconceivable that there wouldn't be public consultation on such monumental plans and leader John Hart announced when he introduced the item that he supported my amendment to publicly consult on any bid. And this was backed by the vast majority of councillors at the end of the debate."

The partnership between Devon and Somerset county councils and their district and borough councils, Plymouth and Exeter city councils, Torbay Council and the National Parks in Dartmoor and Exmoor have set out their mantra - through joint working and pooled funding to deliver greater prosperity and wellbeing, not only for those living across the area but to also improve the contribution to the prosperity of the nation.

Devolving powers and resources

Leader of EDDC Paul Diviani said devolving the powers and resources to those best able to tackle the areas challenges and maximize opportunities will release the productivity, competitiveness and growth that East Devon and the nation need.

He added: "We also want to focus on keeping people healthy through preventative measures, increase our contribution to the national economy, accelerate housing delivery and respond to environmental challenges, balancing protection of the environment with sensitive investment."

County council to review funding for lollipop crossings

DEVON County Council have launched a consultation reviewing how school crossing patrols should be funded and provided in the county.

by Peter Hodges

The authority is exploring ways to maintain the service while looking to save £250,000 from the service's budget in the coming financial year. It is part of £110million of savings required over the next four years.

Councillor Stuart Hughes, DCC's Cabinet Member for Highway Management, said DCC value the the crossing patrols but admitted that they were facing further cuts from central Government and those services which were not statutory were coming under the closest scrutiny.

"We are looking to strike a balance between achieving the required savings while ensuring that a crossing patrol service remains in place for the benefit of schools wishing to have a patrol," Councillor Hughes added. "Following initial consultations with schools that currently have patrols, and also with the Devon Association of Primary Head Teachers, we're proposing that school communities pay for School Crossing Patrols, with the patrols and administration employed by a separate organisation."

"However, Devon would retain the legal duty to ensure adequate support and training is provided to patrols to maintain appropriate standards."

"We want to hear from all schools and parents, especially those who may use a school crossing patrol, so that we can explore all of the alternative options available to us before any decision is made on how the future service will be run."

The county council's road safety service currently employs 80 school crossing patrols, covering around a quarter of all schools in the county at a cost of £200,000 per year, with a further £150,000 spent on support, training and administration.

Feedback from initial consultations over the past nine months has shown that if school communities paid for crossing patrols, they would prefer to have a third party service provider employing and managing the patrol, rather than employing them directly.

Consultation is being held directly with schools and also with the wider community through the Tough Choices website.

Schools are being asked for their view on proposals for school communities to pay for their own crossing patrol.

Patrols are also being written to and are being kept informed of the process.

Ultimately, the responsibility of getting children to school rests with parents, but we fully accept that the presence of patrols plays a part in the travel choices made by parents.

Whatever the future provision of crossing patrols looks like, we remain committed to doing all we can to keep our highway network safe for everyone."

School crossing patrols are not a statutory service for the council and if provision was to change, schools currently with a patrol would be under no obligation to continue using the service.

Devon County Council has the legal right to appoint patrols and ensure adequate support and training, and the council would continue to provide the support necessary to enable the continuation of a safe service, which meets required standards. If the administrative function is removed then school crossing patrols cannot be provided.

The latest consultation closes on January 8th and the results will be used to inform a report to Cabinet early in 2016.

New electoral register published

EAST Devon's Electoral Registration officer has heaped praise on his young electoral services team after EDDC published its new electoral register for 2016.

This is the first register to be published following completion of the transition to Individual Elector Registration (IER).

The new IER replaced the discredited household registration system, which the previous Government had decided was no longer fit for purpose and, which was potentially open to significant fraud. It is now a legal requirement for everyone aged 16 years and over to register under the new system.

Commenting on the publication of the register, Mark Williams, the Electoral Registration Officer for East Devon said: "This new system has been a massive learning curve for my young team, two of whom started as apprentices with the council."

"We have focused all our efforts into making a success of the new IER regime and have used the extra Government funding that was made available, to ensure that IER is a success in East Devon. The end result has been that the number of voters in East Devon has reached its highest ever level."

A successful annual canvas finished on December 1st 2015, resulting in the publication of the 2016 Electoral Register for East Devon, with a total electorate now reaching 108,214.

The annual canvass started in July 2015 with 67,308 initial Household Enquiry Forms (HEFs) being sent out. The failure of some households to respond to this mailout led to 28,760 reminder HEFs being sent out in August 2015, followed by another 19,482 second reminders being sent in September 2015.

After these three stages were completed, canvassers made personal house-to-house visits to 5,116 properties.

This involved the employment of over 35 canvassers, including several Parish Clerks who were employed for their local knowledge of rural and village addresses.

A variety of public engagement methods, were used, including social media and the distribution of over 1,000 posters and 1,500 leaflets, which were sent to local businesses, agencies and residents.

Posters, lesson plans and guidance were also sent to schools and colleges to introduce students to the registration process. Copies of an easy-to-read guide (developed by Mencap), explaining how to vote/register to vote, were sent to relevant groups such as nursing homes and local disability groups.

Being registered allows people to not only vote in elections, but also has a positive effect on their credit rating.

A VISIT to the theatre during the festive season is a wonderfully traditional way to get yourself into the Christmas spirit

Last week Honiton Community Theatre Company provided the perfect prelude to Yuletide with their Over the Sledge variety show.

The group, previously known as Honiton Pantomime Society, have a real depth of talent alongside a completely inclusive ethos, and with the Beehive decked out like a cabaret club, audiences were treated to a colourful, comedic and extremely entertaining vaudeville style production.

'Over The Sledge' HONITON COMMUNITY THEATRE Review by NICKY SWEETLAND

The show boasted real variety, with song, dance, poetry and comedy in abundance and, with a supper also provided, made for a wonderfully relaxed social engagement.

Rising star Chloe Pottinger kicked off proceedings, enthralled the cheerful attendees with the opening bars of the Maria Carey Christmas classic 'All I Want For Christmas Is You'.

Pottinger sings like an angel and when joined later in the show by her parents, Lou and Andrew, director Alex Jackson increased the level of Christmas cheer further with a contrasting version of The Pogues' 'Fairytale of New York'.

The show really showcased Alex Jackson's vocals with some fabulous stand out numbers including 'Blue Christmas', 'Willkommen' and the show's musical highlight, an especially arranged version of The Flying Pickets' number one a capella hit 'Only You' with the ensemble.

The comic aspect is always something Honiton excel at, and within a variety show setting, there is even more licence for laughable larking.

Filled with slightly sordid puns with a very local feel, there were some great sketches including the elves in Santa's workshop and a hilarious new take on the 'Twelve Days Of Christmas'.

In between numbers our funny bones weren't left idle either, with some Alas Smith and Jones style commentary and well delivered poems and quips.

There was also a grand standup routine by Joe Robson and some equally amusing dance numbers, first from the Dad's Disco troupe and then the frankly bizarre Silly Sacks.

The fun filled evening was rounded off with some traditional Christmas carols, which we were all encouraged to join in with and a very welcome mince pie and cream.

Within the show the company allowed us to see some exerts from their next two productions, the pantomime 'Peter Pan', which will be performed in February, and Shakespeare's 'Twelfth Night' which they will perform in the spring.

If the tasters are anything to go by, both shows are likely to be box office winners so booking in advance is a must.

Council leader thanks posties

EAST Devon District Council leader Paul Diviani delivered Christmas greetings in person to busy Royal Mail staff at the delivery office in Honiton.

Councillor Diviani visited on Tuesday, December 8th and was shown around the building by delivery office manager Barry Marshall.

"This is my annual early morning visit to the delivery office at Christmas and I was blown away yet again by just how much effort our posties put into delivering mail for people at this time of year," said Councillor Diviani.

He added: "They really do a first class job. Our postal workers provide a vital service during the festive period – they help deliver Christmas for many people by connecting relatives and friends in our area.

"I would like to thank them for all their hard work and wish them all the best over the busy festive period."

Mr Marshall said: "Our postmen and women are working extremely hard to deliver Christmas cards, letters and parcels to people across Honiton.

"We are grateful that the leader visited the office to see our operation and to support the team.

"We'd like to remind our customers to post early so that friends and family have longer to enjoy their Christmas greetings.

"We would also like to ask everyone to please always use the postcode as this helps us greatly in the job that we do at this busy time."

As part of the Sports for Schools initiative, Antony James visited the school and encouraged all the children to undertake a fitness circuit.

The children found this really good fun and enjoyed being challenged.

Antony then gave an inspiring talk to the whole school about the motivation, dreams and dedication you need to reach your goals.

He encouraged all the children to follow their dreams and set themselves targets in all areas of their lives both academic and sporty.

Christmas bazaar is big success

SEATON Primary School's huge success raising a fantastic Christmas Bazaar proved to be £2,678.

■ Ethan Pyle giving Festive Hoopla a go

The event was organised by the PTA and teachers ran the stalls, which included a chocolate tombola, glitter tattoos, a balloon fairy, snowman skittles, festive hoopla and lots of games which were invented and run by the Year Six children.

Santa and his elves were in the grotto and there was a snow machine to keep children entertained while they waited. Pulled pork burgers from The Shed restaurant were also on sale.

The proceeds of this year's Christmas bazaar will be used to support the school in various projects including upgrading science and maths equipment, art days and much more.

Jess Brooks, chairman of Seaton Primary's PTA, said: "We are so lucky to have such an active PTA at Seaton Primary."

"With lots of parent helpers we are able to put on great events that the children really enjoy and raise lots of money for the school in the process."

"The bazaar continues to go from strength to strength; nearly £2,700 is a lot of money for the school and will enable lots of those 'extras' to enhance our children's education."

"Thank you to everyone that attended and spent their hard earned cash and to all those who helped on the night."

Christmas trees fill St

ST Paul's Church in Honiton hosted its annual Christmas Tree Festival from December 10th-13th.

Following the fantastic success of last year's event, this year 530 people visited the 38 trees, which were decorated by a range of local organisations and businesses highlighting their particular interests.

The event was opened by Honiton Mayor Cllr Caroline Kolek after a short speech by Reverend Sue Roberts. The tree's this year included an innovative tree from the Honiton Festival of Imagination, a tree stuffed full of knitted animals from the Honiton Garden Club as well as Honiton Toy Shop, who had a special mascot with them this year.

Julia Beaman, a member of the Christmas Tree Celebration Team, said: "The aim of the event was to enable the town and church to come together to celebrate at this time of year as well as drawing attention to the fact that the church needs quite a bit of money spent on it.

"This year, we also had live music provided by Magic Carpet, members of the Honiton Youth Orchestra and Sue King and Peter Fung. The Honiton Music Group entertained us but sadly this was their last performance as they needed two or three extra players to make their group viable.

Kilmington school's Christmas concert

THE Reverend Simon Holloway and a packed congregation of enthusiastic family members, friends and Kilmington village residents welcomed the children of St Mary's Catholic Primary School for their Christmas Concert in St Giles' Church on Saturday, November 28th.

The school orchestra, conducted by the talented Rachel Burrough, opened the concert with four lively pieces; Les Bouffons, Mambo United, Hydom Hydom and Deck the Halls. This was followed by a strong performance of The Holly and The Ivy by the school's cello students and then a magical performance of Silent Night by all the violin pupils led by Mrs Polly Orr-Ewing, the school's music teacher. Polly's daughter, Poppy, played Handel's Sonata in F major and gave a superb performance which will have inspired many of the younger children onwards with their musical journey.

Following on from this, The Five Alive Mission

Community choir, accompanied on the piano by Margaret Hurford, sang three songs: The Little Road to Bethlehem by Michael Head, The Advent Candle by Bob Chilcott and Christmas Lullaby by John Rutter.

Their performance showed good dynamic contrast and musical phrasing. Iris Chapman, a year six student and violinist, performed An Chloe by Mozart with a beautiful tone and musical phrasing.

Finally, the concert finished with St Mary's Catholic Primary School choir, again conducted by Mrs Burrough, who sang four songs: Angel's Watchin', Frosty the Snowman, The Lord's My Shepherd and That First Noel.

After the performance of That First Noel there wasn't a dry eye in the church, which boded well for the fact that it had been chosen as the choir's entry for Radio Devon's Star For Christmas competition. Loud applause greeted the bouquet presentations at the end.

Celebrating a new era for The Grove

GENERATIONS of young people enjoyed wild nights-out at The Grove nightclub in Seaton, making it one of the most popular entertainment spots in the area.

Those days are long gone and now

The Grove site is due to emerge as a great asset to the business community in Seaton.

The Grove has been acquired by Axminster Properties Ltd., an offshoot of the highly successful Axminster Tool Centre, and work has started on building a three-storey mixed commercial development on the prime town centre site.

The middle floor will be occupied by LED providing leisure facilities which are currently lacking in the town.

On the ground floor there will be three retail units for rent and being in this central location these will make ideal premises for any expanding or new businesses.

The top floor was originally intended to be office suites but after public consultation there seems to be a wish for a high-end dining facility and Axminster Property are keen to discuss options with any interested parties in taking on such a project.

The development

also includes five town houses.

The development is being marketed by Frank Property of Cross Street, Seaton, who will be celebrating the new era for The Grove site with a special festive event this coming Friday (December 18th).

Good for Seaton

Those interested in finding out more about the options available at The Grove are being invited to join the Frank Property team for mulled wine and mince pies between 10 am and 4 pm.

Kelly Apps, of Frank property, says: "The new development can only be good for Seaton.

"Whilst The Grove holds numerous fun memories for most of us, this unit will be better for the town in terms of respectability and providing business opportunities, and also the saleability of properties nearby which previously had struggled with being so close to a nightclub.

"Seaton is well and truly on the up and in terms of business, this development is a great investment in the future of the town.

"The town is promised a regeneration programme which will certainly give it an injection of life and credibility.

"The new Jurassic Centre, due to open in the spring, is expected to attract more than 50,000 visitors every year.

"There are other exciting plans in the pipeline such as the redevelopment and enhancement of the seafront.

"The development of The Grove forms a big part of this regeneration process and we at Frank Property are delighted to be involved and working closely alongside Axminster Property."

Can Turkeys Fly?

■ NOW it's deep and dark December, Pause a moment to remember, While children dream of winter snow, The turkeys lurk upon Death Row, Gobbling, squabbling, beady-eyed, Soon there will be no place to hide. The fickle finger of fate is beckoning, It's Christmas-time, the day of reckoning. Fattened for the festive roast, They are the bird we crave the most. If only turkeys could learn to fly They'd flap their wings and wave goodbye, On Christmas Eve you might just see them, A flock of turkeys flying to freedom. But take a warning, heed my words, If you should spy these plumpious birds, One might plummet from the skies And hit you right between the eyes.

Seaton Town Hall

■ THE choice before the people of Seaton is a simple one: who is better to own and run Seaton Town Hall, the town council or the new Gateway Community Trust as proposed by Seaton's Voice?

Mr Gosling has used his respected position in the town, without citing reasons, to advocate the town council. For the following reasons, I disagree with him:

● The Gateway Trust will have only one task: to own and run the town hall for the benefit of the community. The council, on the other hand, has a town to run; the town hall can only be part of their remit

● Under the Gateway Trust the town hall will be run as a business, not as a democracy. That is a good thing; business decisions must be made without one eye on the ballot box so that the town hall can thrive and prosper

● The Gateway Trust will be run by a permanent board of Trustees, under rules and safeguards prescribed by law, and liable under law if they fail to act in the best interests of the Trust. Councillors come and go; they are not guaranteed re-election

● One thing the Gateway Trust will not be able to do: they will not be able to sell the town hall to raise funds, however much they may be needed elsewhere. Future town councils can and will, should they deem it in the best interests of the town to do so. Where will the museum be then?

I was at the meeting last week and was impressed by the Seaton's Voice team, and I have been similarly impressed by their track record over the last five years. I respect to the town council, but I do not feel that they are better placed to carry this forward and shall be voting NO to transferring the town hall to their ownership.

'Power crazy' Seaton Town Council

■ IN the last two weeks there have been strange reports in the papers concerning the purchase of Marshlands and the asset transfer of the Town Hall. After having attended the Seaton Town Council meeting on 16 November 2015, in which the future of Seaton Town Hall was discussed, I was left with the disturbing feeling that Seaton Town Council has gone 'power-crazy'.

A Seaton Town Councillor has admitted that they 'made some mistakes in handling the matter of the Town Hall', which has now been compounded by being so high-handed as to dismiss the original agreement, ratified by EDDC, of a partnership with the Town Council, Seaton's Voice and the Museum. The people of Seaton are to be given a Referendum with three Options. However two of these Options are for the Town Council to take over the Town Hall on behalf of Seaton Residents, the 'partners' then becoming mere tenants and any costs will be added to your Council Tax Bill.

The people of Seaton may well ask if any such referendum was considered over the acquisition of the 'marvellous asset' of Marshlands. Councillors stressed that the purchase cost would be met from the authority's general fund and would not affect residents' council tax bills. However this building has stood empty for some considerable time. How will the costs of any refurbishment be funded? Would this also be added to your Council Tax Bill?

At the elections Seaton Town Council said that they wanted to be 'open and transparent' in their dealings with the residents of Seaton. I'm not sure that they have fulfilled that promise over the last few months.

Is there now a huge question of trust between the residents of Seaton and Seaton Town Council?

There are alternatives to what you serve up this Christmas Day

SUPERMARKETS and butchers are competing vigorously for our custom at this time of year, to provide the centrepiece of most Christmas dinners, i.e. the turkey or chicken, and a range of choice is available.

When on the table with all the trimmings, it is easy to forget that this turkey or chicken was once a living creature, let alone wonder what life it has led before arriving at the meat counter.

Unfortunately a lot of poultry, particularly at this time of year, will have been intensively raised, possibly imported, fattened unnaturally fast, and given antibiotics to avert disease which is prevalent - in flocks of thousands in hangar-sized 'barns' - where they never see the light of day from birth to slaughter.

Thankfully there are other choices for those who'd like their Christmas dinner to have a kinder origin. For those who would like to know more about this important matter, Compassion in World Farming - ciwf.org - has the necessary information.

THINK DON'T DRINK AND DRIVE

The festive season is now upon us and with it comes work nights out and an opportunity to catch up with friends and family. But for all too many, it's tempting to ruin the celebrations by driving home after a couple of drinks.

IN THE last 50 years road casualties caused by drink driving have fallen dramatically, but in 2013, there were still 240 deaths due to drink driving – accounting for 14% of all road fatalities. By drinking and driving, you risk your life, those of your passengers and others on the road.

Any amount of alcohol affects your ability to drive.

THE LAW

There are strict alcohol limits for UK drivers: In England, Wales and Northern Ireland, the legal alcohol limit for drivers is:

- 35 microgrammes of alcohol per 100 millilitres of breath
- 80 milligrammes of alcohol in 100 millilitres of blood
- 107 milligrammes of alcohol per 100 millilitres of urine

In Scotland (from 5 December 2014) the legal alcohol limit for drivers is lower at:

- 22 microgrammes of alcohol per 100 millilitres of breath
- 50 milligrammes of alcohol in 100 millilitres of blood
- 67 milligrammes of alcohol per 100 millilitres of urine.

However it is not possible to say how much alcohol you can drink and stay below the limit. The way alcohol affects you depends on:

- your weight, age, sex and metabolism (the rate your body uses energy)
- the type and amount of alcohol you're drinking
- what you've eaten recently
- your stress levels at the time

So if you're driving, it's better to have none for the road.

DRINK DRIVING

- Don't drink and drive, the only safe limit is none.
- You can still be over the limit the morning after.
- Drink and drug driving does cost lives.
- Get caught drink driving and you will be treated like any other criminal.
- A drink driving conviction will stay on your licence for 11 years.
- Program a phone number for a licensed taxi company into your mobile phone before you go out.
- If you are caught drink driving you will be required to attend court where you could face a fine, be banned from driving or imprisoned.

THE CONSEQUENCES

if you are convicted of drink driving, including:

- A minimum 12 month driving ban
- A criminal record
- A hefty fine
- An endorsement on your license for 11 years

However, this list does not reflect the everyday consequences of being caught drink driving which can include:

- Increase in car insurance costs
- Job loss
- Trouble getting in to countries like the USA
- The shame of having a criminal record
- Loss of independence

The Institute of Advanced Motorists calculate that a drink drive conviction could cost between £20,000 - £50,000 as a result of fines, solicitors fees, increase in car insurance and loss of job.

YOU DRINK
YOU LOSE

THINK ADVICE

Beware the morning after

You could be over the legal limit many hours after your last drink, even if it's the 'morning after'. Sleep, coffee and cold showers don't help to sober you up - time is the only way to get alcohol out of your system.

There is no excuse for drink driving

"I can handle my drink."

Alcohol affects everybody's driving for the worse. It creates a feeling of overconfidence, makes judging distance and speed more difficult and slows your reactions so it takes longer to stop

"I'm only going down the road."

A large proportion of all drink drive crashes occur within three miles of the start of the journey.

If you're planning to drink alcohol, plan how to get home without driving

Options include agreeing on a designated driver, saving a taxi number to your phone, or finding out about public transport routes and times before you go out.

Don't offer an alcoholic drink to someone you know is planning to drive

Even if you're not driving, you can help reduce the number of people who are killed and injured every year by drink driving.

Don't accept a lift from a driver you know has drunk alcohol

Ottery Silver Band's Christmas Concert

FOR THE perfect chance to take a break from Christmas preparations, take a stroll down to The Institute, Ottery St Mary on Friday, December 18th at 7.45pm, to enjoy a fabulous evening of music performed by the Ottery St Mary Silver Band.

Since 2015 is the 50th anniversary of the much-loved film version of The Sound of Music, the band will be playing a medley of songs from the show and the audience will be more than welcome to sing along to their favourite numbers. The tenor horn and trombone sections of the band will have a special role in the concert too: Paul Bridgman will be performing a tenor horn solo of the gentle "A Time for Peace", a complete contrast to the lively "Frolic for Trombones". There will also be an entertaining selection of wonderful Christmas music including 'Russian Sleigh Ride' and a modern arrangement of 'In the Bleak Mid-winter'.

Ottery St Mary is fortunate to not only have the Silver Band but also a training band, Brass Class, for newer players of all ages. Brass Class has its own slot in the programme, which will be the debut for five new members of the band, and will be performing music from the 1950s right up to the present day: 'Rockin Around the Christmas Tree', 'A Starry Night', 'Where are you Christmas?' (from How the Grinch Stole Christmas) and the popular 'Let It Go' (from Disney's Frozen).

And, of course, no Christmas concert would be complete without Christmas carols for everyone to join in.

Tickets are available now at the Ottery Tourist Information Centre (01404 813964) or the Ottery branch of Gilbert Stephens Solicitors (01404 812228).

Any unsold tickets will be available on the door but, be warned, the Christmas concert was a sell-out last year so buy your tickets early, before they all go!

Good Vibrations at Winstons this Christmas

The Beach Boys Band

SINCE its inception, the reputation of The Beach Boys Band has continued to grow, they are now one of the most sought after 1960s tribute acts around.

Based in the south west of the UK the band have a 2016 tour being planned taking in Bristol, Bath, Bournemouth, Plymouth, Birmingham and other cities throughout the UK, with a European leg starting in August with a huge tribute festival in the Netherlands. The tour has to fit around all the private party bookings they already have booked.

Part of the attraction of The Beach Boys Band show is that it appeals to all ages, the many and varied evergreen Beach Boys' hits together with the mass exposure they have received over the years have become part of the very fabric of everyday life.

The show's unique content is such that it is melodic enough for a sit down audience yet at the same time, has the energy and drive to inspire people wishing to dance the night away!

To create a truly believable and memorable tribute act, both vocal and instrumental sounds must be replicated to the finest detail. It is this attention to detail, that have made The Beach Boys Band the popular attraction they are today. From the early songs of surf and sports cars to the more sophisticated sounds of recording projects like Pet Sounds, the Beach Boys' music was the soundtrack to a whole generation of young people, not just in the United States but worldwide.

Delivering the songs that everyone knows and loves, from the finesse and sheer beauty of 'God Only Knows' to the pulsating masterpiece 'Good Vibrations', The Beach Boys Band deliver a live performance that reflects both their enthusiasm for their work and mastery of a genre of music that is generally accepted as being both complicated and difficult to perform live.

The Beach Boys Band play at Winstons, Seaton on Saturday, December 19th. See the advert below for more details and ticket information.

Iminster Entertainment Society's Railway Children production is one not to miss

THE RAILWAY CHILDREN
by Iminster Entertainment Society
December 10th-12th & 17th-19th
Review by Nicky Sweetland

IIMINSTER Entertainment society are well known within the local theatre going fraternity for their high quality productions and with such an enviable reputation to uphold, the group decided this year to present an alternative to the regular Christmas show, with a musical version of the E. Nesbit classic story, The Railway Children.

The beloved children's tale, was set to music back in 2005 by the writing partnership of Julian Woolford and Richard John who gave the drama a lift by adding some perky tunes and charming lyrics.

The plot follows a family who are forced to move out of their plush London residence following a stinging accusation of espionage. They are made to downsize and move to the sticks, where they find their new modest dwelling happens to be next to a railway line.

The station master Mr Perks, played by Mick Glynn, leads the action from the start. With a jaunty demeanour and warmth he befriends the family and acts as the show's narrator, singing some lovely numbers and ensuring the pace never wains. His scenes with the children, played by Silvey Webber, Daniel Fowler and Matilda Bloomfield are truly captivating and with a pleasing voice, he really captures the lovable fellow.

Local stage star Silvey Webber proves once again why she is gaining real acclaim after recently wowing audiences in Axminster with her portrayal of Sarah Brown in Guys and Dolls. The Warehouse is now being treated to her heavenly vocals and her on point characterisation as she plays Bobby, the role famously played by Jenny Agutter in the 1970 film adaptation. Along with the adorable Daniel Fowler and the feisty Matilda Bloomfield, both of whom show fabulous maturity with their performances, the trio set out on some adventures which include possibly the most memorable scene, in which the children are forced to stop a train by waving their red bloomers following a landslide. Oh, and did I mention the train? I won't give too much away, but let's just say the sequence is extremely impressive with some ingenious staging and breathtaking effects.

The children's stoical mother is played with absolute grace by Colleen MacMahon and Marcus Wood adds a bit of romance as the scrumptious Jim. He also joins the remarkable ensemble who's united sound resonates around the auditorium and who, with the help of the junior chorus give a lively and energetic performance throughout.

Producer Alison Haines even manages to get in some local references which as the theatre is set so close to the West Somerset railway is a really nice touch.

So, rather than wasting time and money on the London production or some other festive offering this year, get your tickets for this wonderful adaptation of The Railway Children before it's too late.

The Railway Children runs at the Warehouse Theatre in Iminster from December 17th-19th. For more details visit the website at www.thewarehousetheatre.org.uk

Hawkchurch Christmas Tree Festival is bigger than ever this year

HAWKCHURCH Parish Church is holding its annual Christmas tree competition and festival on Monday, December 20th. Dozens of clubs and societies from all over the area are designing and making their own entries for the event, leading up to a grand display of trees in the church itself. Trees will have a novel theme chosen by the clubs themselves, with hand-made decorations.

Everyone is invited to attend, and entry is free. The winner is decided by popular choice, with everyone visiting the display entitled to vote for their favourite tree for £1 per vote.

Past winners have included a tree-shaped pile of footballs from Hawkchurch FC. Last year's winner was for the Save Axminster Hospital beds campaign, decorated with tiny hand-made beds, ambulances and other medical items.

The competition is now in its eleventh year and is featured on the December page of the 'Colours of EX13' calendar for 2016, which is being sold to promote the restoration of the Minster church in Axminster.

This year's competition is bigger and better than ever with 39 entries. As always, the proceeds will be donated to the church maintenance fund. Last year the event raised more than £1,000.

A preview of festive TV and Film
by Nicky Sweetland

Downton Abbey returns this Christmas Day for the Finale. Romance is in the air at Downton but, for some, the year's end will prove bittersweet.

Doctor Who
The Husbands
of River Song
5.15pm BBC1

When a crashed spaceship calls upon his help, the Time Lord finds himself launched on a chase across the galaxy. Greg Davis and Matt Lucas guest-star

If you're looking forward to snuggling up in front of the TV this Christmas, look no further than our Festive View for an extensive guide to all of your holiday viewing.

There are all of the usual Yuletide offerings including the soaps vying for top spot on Christmas day and the Doctor Who Christmas special which this year will see the return of the Doctor's beloved wife River Song.

For musicals fans there are a plethora of jazz hands to choose from with The Sound of Music Live! on ITV on December 20th and Gypsy with the multi award winning Imelda Staunton on December 27th. Lyme Regis' own West End star Luke Street can be seen in the production, which was filmed at the Savoy theatre in October.

We've also got the pick of this year's films, including some almost compulsory family viewing.

DOCTOR WHO

It seems like 'Doctor Who' is making up for the death of Clara Oswald (Jenna Coleman) by unleashing a truly special Christmas episode this year. The show will mark the return of Alex Kingston as the Doctor's beloved wife River Song, in the episode entitled 'The Husbands of River Song'.

"It's Christmas Day on a remote human colony and the Doctor is hiding from Christmas Carols and Comedy Antlers. But when a crashed spaceship calls upon the Doctor for help, he finds himself recruited into River Song's squad and hurled into a fast and frantic chase across the galaxy. King Hydroflax (Greg Davies) is furious, and his giant Robot bodyguard is out-of-control and coming for them all! Will Nardole (Matt Lucas) survive? And when will River Song work out who the Doctor is?"

DOWNTON ABBEY

Romance abounds in the final episode of Downton Abbey, but for some the year's end is bitter-sweet.

Mary endeavours to build bridges but Edith's secret continues to pose a threat, even after she thought there was nothing left to lose.

As Henry settles into the role of husband, scars left by Charlie's death are slow to heal, while Carson struggles to come to terms with developments which prove that even he is not invulnerable to change.

Spratt's successful moonlighting venture is threatened by the conniving of Denker, and Daisy may have missed her chance with an admirer.

Isobel receives devastating news and when the Greys' scheming takes a sinister turn, she and Violet join forces.

Robert must learn the value of independence, while the day that Anna and Bates have been waiting for arrives.

The last ever episode offers all the love and loss, happiness and heartbreak of Downton Abbey, and as the family and servants prepare to welcome 1926 with an unforgettable New Year's Eve we will share our final two hours in their company, and reflect on the ending of a television event.

CHRISTMAS SOAP HIGHLIGHTS EASTENDERS

Walford isn't known as the place to go for Christmas cheer and this festive season is no different, with the Mitchells and Beales at war, and Dean seeking revenge on Mick and Linda as they prepare to tie the knot. A helping of joy does come in the form of a baby boy however, although with a potential paternal struggle, it doesn't look like it will be all that merry for Stacey.

CORONATION STREET

Norris is displeased as Emily takes off on her South American adventures, and Fizz and Tyrone are set for an emotional rollercoaster with the prospect of Hope remaining in hospital and missing the festivities.

EMMERDALE

Corrie Legend Liz Dawn (aka Vera Duckworth) puts in an appearance at the B&B and Pollard gives a good impression of Scrooge, but the Dingles are in the thick of the action this Christmas with Belle bursting to spill the beans about Joanie and Zak.

HOLLYOAKS

There are two special hour-long episodes on Christmas Eve and New Years Eve with Ste and John Paul taking the spotlight during the Christmas Eve special. The dangerous Freddie Roscoe will make his exciting return as Reenie and Porsche prepare to leave.

THE SOUND OF MUSIC

The Sound of Music Live airs Sunday 20th December, from 7.30pm on ITV

This Christmas ITV are presenting The Sound of Music Live, a new television dramatisation of the world's most popular musical. The ambitious two-and-a-half hour musical drama will be transmitted live on ITV in what will be the "must see" event of the year.

The timeless and true story of Maria and the von Trapp family will come to life on soundstages at London's Three Mills Studios. Based on the original stage musical with a book by Lindsay & Crouse and suggested by The Trapp Family Singers by Maria Augusta Trapp, The Sound of Music Live will include all of the songs from its classic score by Rodgers and Hammerstein, including How Do You Solve A Problem Like Maria, Edelweiss, Do-Re-Mi, My Favourite Things, Climb Ev'ry Mountain and the title song.

The spectacular cast includes Kara Tointon (Mr Selfridge, Pygmalion, EastEnders) as Maria; Julian Ovenden (Downton Abbey, Smash, My Night With Reg) as Captain Georg von Trapp; Katherine Kelly (Mr Selfridge, She Stoops To Conquer, Coronation Street) as Baroness Elsa Schraeder and Alexander Armstrong (Armstrong and Miller, Pointless, Danger Mouse) as Max Detweiler. Olivier Award winning actress, Maria Friedman (Rag2me, The Woman in White, Chicago) joins the cast as Mother Abbess and actor and comedian, Mel Giedroyc (BAFTA nominated Sadie J) will appear as Frau Schmidt.

The Sound Of Music

20th December, from 7.30pm, ITV

THE SOUND OF MUSIC TRIVIA

- The Sound of Music was not the first name that Rodgers & Hammerstein thought of for their new musical. They initially wanted to call it Love Song
- The Sound of Music has been staged on every continent save Antarctica. It was the last musical written by Rodgers with Hammerstein in a remarkable career that also included Oklahoma!, The King and I and South Pacific
- 'Edelweiss' was the last song they wrote for the musical score, and the last song Oscar Hammerstein II ever wrote; he died in August of 1960, about 10 months after the musical had opened on Broadway in November of 1959
- When the stage play of The Sound of Music was transformed into a film, three songs were dropped. They were: 'How Can Love Survive?' sung by Max and Elsa, 'No Way to Stop It' sung by Max, Elsa and the Captain, and 'An Ordinary Couple' sung by Maria and the Captain
- There are seven von Trapp children in the musical - Liesl, Fredrich, Louisa, Kurt, Brigitta, Marta and Gretl. The real von Trapp children were actually named, from oldest to youngest, Rupert, Werner, Hedwig, Johanna, Marlna, Agatha, and Maria
- Schnitzel with noodles is a "favourite thing" in The Sound of Music but it isn't Austrian - Hammerstein invented this dish!

Chocolate Christmas Pudding

Preparation time 30 mins plus overnight soaking
Cooking time 3 hours 30 minutes
Serves: 6-8

- Ingredients
- 350g luxury mixed dried fruit
  - 100g ready-to-eat dried figs, chopped finger nail size
  - 100ml stout, preferably chocolate stout
  - 60g unsalted butter, room temperature
  - 60g dark brown muscovado sugar
  - 60g clear honey
  - 2 large eggs, room temperature, beaten
  - 60g plain flour
  - 125g fresh white breadcrumbs
  - ½ tsp ground mixed spice
  - ¼ tsp grated nutmeg
  - ½ tsp ground cinnamon
  - 1 medium Cox's eating apple, cored and grated
  - 10g chopped almonds
  - 100g pine nuts
  - 100g dark chocolate, preferably Divine

- Preparation method
1. Put the dried fruit, chopped figs and the stout into a mixing bowl. Stir well then cover with clingfilm and leave to soak for 8-12 hours, or overnight - if possible, give the mixture the odd stir now and then.
  2. The next day, beat the butter with the sugar and honey in a large mixing bowl, using an electric whisk or wooden spoon. Gradually beat in the eggs, beating well after each addition and fold in the flour until evenly mixed.
  3. In another bowl, mix the breadcrumbs with all the spices, grated apple, almonds and pine nuts. When thoroughly combined, stir into the egg mixture with the soaked fruit and any liquid in the bowl
  4. Break or chop the chocolate into small pieces and stir into the pudding mixture, making sure the chocolate is evenly distributed.
  5. Spoon into a 1.1 litre buttered pudding basin. Tap the bowl gently on the work top to expel any air pockets then cover with a layer of greased grease-proof paper pleated in the middle to allow for expansion, then foil (or use a snap-on lid). Tie securely with string and loop the string across the top to make a handle for easy removal.
  6. Steam or boil the pudding in a pan of boiling water: stand the bowl on an upturned saucer then pour in boiling water from the kettle so the water comes 2/3 up the side of the bowl.
  7. Simmer gently for 3½ hours, topping up with boiling water from time to time so the pan doesn't boil dry. Remove the bowl from the pan and when cold cover with fresh paper and foil. Store in the fridge for up to month.
  8. To serve steam or boil as before for 2 hours. Turn out onto a platter to serve.

Mincemeat slices

Preparation time 14 mins
Cooking time 20 mins
Makes: 12 slices

- Ingredients
- 140g/5oz butter or margarine
  - 85g/3oz soft brown sugar
  - 230g/8oz plain or whole wheat flour
  - 114g/4oz porridge oats
  - 340-455g/12-16oz mincemeat
- Preparation method
1. Preheat the oven to 200°C or 400°F.
  2. Grease a shallow baking tin, 11 x 7 inches.
  3. Melt the butter or margarine gently in a large saucepan. Add the sugar and mix well.
  4. While the butter and sugar are being heated up, mix the porridge oats & flour together in a bowl.
  5. When the butter & sugar mixture have turned to liquid, take the pan off the heat and add the flour & oat mixture gradually, stirring all the time.
  6. When it is all thoroughly mixed and blended, spoon HALF the mixture into a well greased shallow baking tin.
  7. With the flat of your hand, press the mixture down firmly all over - making sure it gets into all the corners!
  8. The firmer you press, the less crumbly it will be when it has been cooked & therefore easier to pick up and eat!

Swedish Glog

- Preparation method

5 TIPS FOR SAVING WATER

1. FLUSHING: About a third of the water we use at home is for flushing the loo, but you can save a lot by only flushing when there's something solid to flush away. If this doesn't appeal, you can restrict the amount of water used for each flush by fitting a water-saving loo, such as a dual-flush one that has a big and a little flush. You can also put something (a brick, or a plastic bag designed for the job - some water companies provide these free of charge) in the cistern, so it doesn't use as much water to flush.

2. SHOWERS: Taking a shower uses around two-thirds less water than taking a bath, but this is providing you're only in the shower for a few minutes and it's not a power shower - power showers can use more water than a bath. You'll save most water by fitting a flow-restricting shower or an aerating shower head. These use less water per minute and shouldn't leave you showering in a dribble. Mira Showers' Eco showers, for example, use flow regulators to limit the maximum flow of water, while their Eco shower heads use aerating technology to create the sensation of a normal flow using a lot less water (see www.mirashowers.co.uk).

3. DRIPPING: If you have a dripping tap, fix it as quickly as possible because it will soon waste litres of water. Often the tap just needs a new washer, which isn't hard to fit. You can also save water by fitting flow restrictors or regulators to your home's taps, or tap inserts that aerate the water.

4. RECYCLING: One of the best ways to save water is to install a grey-water recycling system. This typically takes waste water from the bath, shower and basin (and sometimes other waste water too) and uses it for the loo and outside tap. There are various ways to do this, some of which are expensive, but it can be as straightforward as fitting a waste-pipe splitter to separate the water from your bathroom's loo from the room's other waste water.

5. WATER BUTT: In the garden, rainwater can be collected in a water butt by connecting it to a downpipe, which is a fairly simple DIY job. This makes watering the garden easier, especially when there's a hosepipe ban. A more elaborate version of this is a rainwater harvesting system. There are different versions, but it's often a system that collects rain from the guttering and pumps it to where it's needed. More than half of the mains water we use at home could be replaced by rainwater in this way, so it could make a big difference.

Renault adds Sport+ pack to Traffic line-up

RENAULT Traffic van customers looking for a more distinctive sporting look can now order a new Sport+ bodykit package. The special pack is priced at £995 (excluding VAT) and is available to order now on all versions of Traffic.

The Sport+ bodykit upgrade takes inspiration from the Renaultsport range, and includes front and rear spoilers, front fog-light surrounds, side running boards and striped decals, designed to fit the contours of the Traffic's side panels. The Sport+ pack also adds LED daytime running lights, which are positioned in the lower front grille.

The Sport+ pack is available as an option when ordering any version of a new Traffic, and in any of the ten available body colours. The side decals can be chosen in either black, red or white. Complementing this, the front spoiler, side running boards and front fog-light surrounds feature in silver, and the rear spoiler is black.

The Renault Traffic is available from £18,245 excluding VAT, with four efficient turbodiesel engines, in a choice of three bodystyles – Panel Van, Crew Van – to carry up to six people and equipment – and Passenger, which seats up to nine people in comfort. The Traffic boasts fuel economy of up to 50.4mpg (NEDC Combined) and CO2 emissions as low as 149g/km.

The Traffic provides the best load capacities on the medium panel van market with clever solutions to make the loading area more practical. ## Five stars for the Mercedes Benz GLC

THE Mercedes-Benz GLC has achieved the top score in the Euro NCAP rating. The new mid-size SUV has received five stars, continuing the Mercedes-Benz success story in impressive style. In 2014 the GLA, C-Class and V-Class were likewise awarded five stars by Euro NCAP.

The GLC has achieved five stars for occupant safety, child safety, pedestrian protection and its assistance systems – giving it the maximum score in the Euro NCAP rating. The basis for this outstanding result is the perfect interaction between active and passive safety: the combination of a highly rigid safety passenger cell, highly effective restraint systems, the latest driver assistance systems and other measures leads to first-class test results.

"The new GLC's gratifying result in the Euro NCAP rating confirms the success of our efforts in the areas of active and passive safety," said Prof. Dr.-Ing. Rodolfo Schöneburg, Head of Vehicle Safety, Durability and Corrosion Protection at Mercedes-Benz Cars. "We will continue to intensify our efforts in the future, so as to provide the best possible safety not only for drivers and passengers in a Mercedes-Benz, but also for more vulnerable road users such as pedestrians and cyclists."

Real Life Safety plus Intelligent Drive
Assessment by means of crash ratings is only one aspect of the comprehensive safety philosophy followed by Mercedes-

Benz. Thanks to the knowledge acquired as a result of accident research conducted in-house, the GLC has also been systematically designed with real-world accidents in mind. In this way, Mercedes-Benz is once again highlighting the leading role it plays as a safety pioneer in the field of automotive safety. The comprehensive approach taken by Mercedes-Benz accident research centres focuses on avoiding accidents completely or mitigating their consequences. The company uses the term "Real Life Safety" to describe this approach.

Almost all of the driver assistance systems which are familiar from the C-, E- and S-Class are available for the new GLC. As part of the Intelligent Drive concept, these systems combine data from various sensor technologies to substantially enhance comfort and safety. COLLISION PREVENTION ASSIST PLUS, Crosswind Assist, Headlamp Assist and ATTENTION ASSIST are on board as standard. The Driving Assistance package Plus provides an even more comprehensive range of active safety features, comprising DISTRONIC PLUS with Steering Assist and Stop&Go Pilot, PRE-SAFE® Brake with pedestrian detection, BAS PLUS with Cross-Traffic Assist, Active Blind Spot Assist, Active Lane Keeping Assist and PRE-SAFE® PLUS.

These measures exceeding the bounds of the actual Euro NCAP rating have been acknowledged by Euro NCAP with two so-called "Advanced Rewards" for PRE-SAFE® and ATTENTION ASSIST.

Best possible protection for more vulnerable road users

The protection of more vulnerable road users such as pedestrians and cyclists is also taken very seriously by Mercedes-Benz. The GLC is equipped with an active bonnet which is raised by 80 millimetres during an impact to provide additional deformation space. Under the bonnet, the package has been further optimised with a new engine cover and deformable air intake, creating yet more deformation space. In this way the GLC meets the stringent pedestrian protection requirements of Euro-NCAP, which go well beyond the legal requirements.

BAS PLUS warns the driver when pedestrians are detected in the danger zone by the stereo camera. The PRE-SAFE® Brake with pedestrian recognition triggers autonomous braking when the system detects a pedestrian in the danger zone and the driver does not react to the system's warnings. This pedestrian detection forming part of the optionally available Driving Assistance package Plus represents a milestone in preventing accidents with pedestrians or mitigating their consequences.

The GLC's standard safety systems, which in the UK include the autonomous emergency braking system Collision Prevention Assist Plus, also help it to achieve a reduction of up to six insurance groups in Thatcham ratings, when compared with an equivalent model without such systems.

A tradition of top results for Mercedes-Benz

The most recent top result for the GLC is a continuation of last year's successes: in last year's Euro NCAP ratings the GLA, the C-Class and the V-Class all achieved five stars, occupying the top positions amongst all vehicles tested in 2014. The C-Class was specially praised by Euro NCAP as the best in class among medium-class passenger cars.

Six out of ten motorists oppose changes to drink driving laws

NEW poll ahead of Christmas found most drivers in England, Wales & Northern Ireland do not want an extension Scotland's 'one-pint-and-you're-out' clampdown

Six out of ten motorists oppose a new clampdown on drink driving, according to a new survey.

It found that 62% of drivers do not support an extension of Scotland's new 50mg limit for England, Wales and Northern Ireland – a year after it was introduced north of the border.

The overwhelming majority of respondents (84%) said the new measures would harm the already struggling pub trade. And fewer than half those polled (43%) thought the proposed restrictions would make our roads safer.

Three-quarters of drivers (74%) felt further changes may unfairly affect drivers travelling to work the morning after a night's drinking.

And 68% said a new clampdown would be detrimental to the quality of life in rural areas where public transport is often limited.

The results were revealed in a new poll for road safety firm SmartWitness, which makes Britain's most popular dash-cams. Last December, Scotland reduced the legal alcohol limit from 80mg to 50mg in every 100ml of blood.

Campaigners argued that the change would cut the number of deaths and serious injuries on Scottish roads.

The limit elsewhere in the UK has remained at 80mg – the highest in Europe.

The UK government has said that at present it has no plans to adopt the Scottish measures because it would have no impact on 'high risk offenders'.

But the Police Federation has called for the Scottish limit to be introduced throughout the UK. Experts have said the new 50mg limit means that an average man is limited to a pint of beer or a large glass and women to half a pint of beer or a small glass of wine.

That's why the new rules have been dubbed the 'one-pint-and-you're-out' clampdown.

SmartWitness chief executive said Paul Singh said: "This new research shows that there is no desire to extend the Scottish drink driving clampdown to the rest of the UK.

"Drink driving offences have been falling steadily since 1979 and there has been a huge reduction in drink driving accidents in the same period – down from 20,000 a year to around 6,000.

"The police have done a great job in enforcing the drink drive laws, particularly at Christmas time, and hammering the message that drink driving is totally unacceptable behaviour."

SmartWitness makes Britain's most popular vehicles CCTV cameras.

Sales of SmartWitness cameras have shot up by 30% in the last two years as more motorists use the technology to guard against cash-for-crash fraudsters and to improve their driving standards.

Its best-selling camera is the KP1 which provides instant notification by email in the event of a collision.

Just 2% of accidents caught on a Smart Witness camera result in disputed insurance claims against an industry norm of 40% of all motoring claims.

Kia kicks off 2016 early with attractive range of customer offers

KIA Motors UK Ltd is starting 2016 early with a range of attractive customer offers across the entire line-up, available from 188 dealers across the network. Offers include the newly introduced Optima and the best-selling Sportage. Customers can save up to £1,400 on selected models, enjoy a finance deal of 4.9 per cent across the entire Kia range and have a generous selection of deposit contributions.

The all-new Optima is opening with a strong launch, with a £1,500 deposit contribution on 4.9 per cent PCP. Other offers across the Kia range include the current Sportage, where mid-grade and upper-grade 1.7 CRDi diesel derivatives now benefit from a £1,200 customer saving and £1,200 deposit contribution when financed on a 4.9 per cent PCP deal.

Kia's popular 'SR7' range of vehicles, which includes the Picanto, Rio, Venga, cee'd and Carens, is available with zero per cent finance and zero per cent deposit on PCP, lowering the entry to ownership level significantly. The zero per cent PCP offer on Picanto also includes £500 deposit contribution, whilst Rio's offer comes with a £250 deposit contribution.

There are also discounts across a number of vehicles in the Kia range. Kia's small car range, the Picanto and Rio both have massive customer cash savings of up to £1,000 available. Additionally there are improved customer savings on Venga 'SR7' and '2', which have increased to £1,000.

Kia's popular cee'd range are also included in the deals. The latest offers on the new cee'd include customer savings of up to £900 across the range. This is on top of £1,500 deposit contribution being made available on every new cee'd financed on a 4.9 per cent PCP agreement.

Moving forward into 2016, Kia's Care-3 servicing plan will continue to be on offer for customers. This highly competitive service package deal means your first three services, normally due over the course of three years, costs only £99 for all 'SR7' grade customers – similar rates are available for other model specifications.

Volkswagen Commercial Vehicles announces new petrol range

▲ Volkswagen Caddy Life

VOLKSWAGEN Commercial Vehicles has announced that the fourth-generation Caddy Life and Caddy panel van variants and sixth-generation Caravelle are now available to order with a petrol engine. Prices start from £13,610 (Basic RRP excl. VAT) for the 1.2 TSI 84PS 5-speed Caddy panel van Startline model, from £15,110 for the 1.2 TSI 84PS 5-speed manual Caddy Life and from £28,950 for the 2.0 TSI 150PS 6-speed manual Caravelle SE short wheelbase.

As with the diesel-powered Caddy and Caravelle models, the new petrol variants come with a full range of technology, comfort, convenience and safety features. These include a composition colour infotainment system with DAB radio, Bluetooth, and Post-Collision Braking system, as well as additional options such as High Beam Assist, City Emergency Braking and Adaptive Cruise Control.

The new Euro 6 petrol engine range will consist of a 1.2 84PS 5-speed manual, a 1.0 102PS 5-speed manual and a 1.4 125PS with either the 6-speed manual or 7-speed DSG gearbox available on both Caddy panel van and Caddy Life as well as a 2.0 150PS 6-speed manual and 2.0 204PS 7-speed DSG on the Caravelle SE short wheelbase (SWB) model.

The Caddy is the second best-selling model in Volkswagen Commercial Vehicles' range after the Transporter. The fourth-generation Caddy panel van continues to be available in three trim levels – Startline, Trendline and Highline – and with short or Maxi wheelbases. The Maxi version adds 469mm to the short wheelbase's already generous 1,781mm and a load capacity of 4.2m<sup>3</sup> (SWB 3.2m<sup>3</sup>).

Caddy Life and Maxi Life come with a significant amount of standard equipment, but there are also some desirable options available to help with everyday life behind the wheel. These include Park Assist, which makes light work of manoeuvring into parking spaces, or Adaptive Cruise Control (ACC), which will keep you at a pre-set distance from the car in front by regulating your speed in accordance with the traffic in front of you.

Volkswagen's Caddy Life offers flexible seating for up to seven passengers, including the driver. The two rear rows of seats can be folded, double folded or removed to leave a loading space of up to 3,030 litres. The Caddy Maxi Life, with its extra 420mm length, offers an additional 340 litres, bringing the total loading area up to 3,370 litres.

The sixth-generation Caravelle SE SWB offers space and versatility for up to six passengers. It comes with twin sliding side doors as standard, designed to provide easy access for passengers and luggage. The rear seats are rail mounted to provide flexible and comfortable seating options and the safety and technology features included as standard are first class.

For further information regarding the new Volkswagen Caddy and Caravelle models, please visit www.volkswagen-vans.co.uk or speak to your nearest Volkswagen Van Centre.

Vikings run title-chasing Tivvy close

Tigers tamed by lowly Liverton – Walker hits hat-trick but Beer held

SW Peninsula League D1 (E)

AXMINSTER TOWN 2 LIVERTON UTD 3
AXMINSTER, facing a lowly Liverton United at Tiger Way, started slowly and, with the game only two minutes old the visitors had a free header cleared off the line.

The warning signs were there for Axminster and sure enough they conceded in the 13th minute when a Ryan Beattie header was half cleared but the ball had already crossed the line.

Almost straight away the Tigers had a good opportunity to equalise when the ball fell to Ben Vine, but unfortunately his shot drifted wide.

Axminster quickly had two corners in succession with Nathan Warren shooting wide after being well placed. The home side were beginning to build up pressure with some neat play between Warren and Liam Cleal almost resulting in Axminster's opening goal.

Two further good chances fell to Vine but both attempts fell short and Liverton countered quickly to make it 2-0 with an excellent low shot which gave keeper Scott Wells-Burr no chance.

Axminster started the second half with much more urgency and a wonderful through ball by Warren in the 48th minute opened up the visiting defence for Luke Finn to run onto. Liverton's keeper Simon Primmer rushed out to intercept and was clearly outside his penalty area when handled the ball.

But to the amazement of all in the ground the referee gave a yellow card only, causing derision from the players and the crowd!

To make matters worse Primmer then made a top draw save from the resulting free-kick.

But the Tigers pulled one back soon after when Ben Vine's diving header found the back of the net.

Finn looked to have salvaged a point with the Tigers' second 20 minutes from time but a long through ball split the Axminster defence for the simplest of goals. Axminster tried in vain to get back on terms but Liverton saw out the remainder of the game.

SIDMOUTH TOWN 1 TIVERTON RES 2

SIDMOUTH welcomed championship chasing Tiverton Town Reserves to Manstone Road.

The hosts were well disciplined and organised and clearly set up to frustrate the yellows. For all their possession Tivvy struggled to breakdown a solid home side.

The Vikings had the first chance when keeper John Wannell dropped a routine cross, the ball hit Cameron Vere four yards from the goal line but the ball agonisingly trickled out for a goal kick.

Tiverton took the lead on the half-hour when Khal Badavi drilled in a cross that was bundled the past keeper Alex Bowring by Luke Mortimer.

The opening 15 minutes of the second half was an even affair with neither defences giving any ground.

But Tiverton scored a second 20 minutes from time through Dave O'Connor.

To Sidmouth's credit they did not fold even though they were reduced to 10 men when Billy Rouse received his marching orders after tangling with Danny Clay.

Then came a moment of class as Cameron Vere, with his back to goal and 20 yards out, expertly flicked the ball over marker Ben Ashford's head and then volleyed home to reduce the arrears.

Vere then clipped the upright as the unbeaten visitors were running the clock down.

In the 88th minute Sidmouth's Ollie Binion received his marching orders after challenging for a 50-50 ball.

BEER ALBION 3 CLYST VALLEY 3

D&E Premier Division
DESPITE holding a 3-0 lead Beer Albion had to settle for a point as Clyst Valley fought back to earn a 3-3 draw writes Richard Honnor.

With a strong wind at their backs, Beer gained a massive early advantage. Player-manager Richard Walker scored a quick-fire eight-minute hat-trick as the Fishermen sailed into a 3-0 lead after only 10 minutes.

Walker's first came after two minutes when he slotted home after good work by Jacob Clode. Four minutes later he beat the offside trap and coolly slid the ball home. His third on 10 minutes was a piece of individual brilliance – lobbing keeper Jon Bardot from all of 30 yards.

The result would surely have been sealed on 17 minutes but Walker headed narrowly wide from a Pedro Fontes free kick.

The game swung dramatically after the break. Clyst now had the advantage of the conditions and quickly made this pay with an unstoppable header on 48 minutes. The visitors reduced the arrears further on 59 minutes.

And just as they appeared to have secured the three points, the Fishermen switched off and Clyst Valley dealt the hammer blow with a 92nd minute equaliser.

Next Saturday Beer entertain Seaton Town at The Furzebrake, the match sponsor is Nick Driver.

MILLWEY RES 1 ROYAL OAK 2

Division Six
WHILE Millwey are certainly not playing the flowing football that propelled them to the top of the table they can certainly think the Gods are against them writes Dick Sturch. This game was a prime example of that.

Royal Oak went ahead after five minutes with a penalty awarded against Matty Lewis who turned away with the ball from an attacking forward who then flung himself to the ground and the referee blew for a spot kick!

This was followed in the 20th minute with an own goal, when a cross was driven into the Millwey penalty area, hit Alex Rocket and flew into the net.

Worse was to follow as Levi Hoole burst through only to be deliberately hauled down by the visiting goalkeeper who was for – untate to escape a card of either colour.

The subsequent penalty was saved by the offending keeper to leave Royal Oak 2-0 ahead at half time.

The second half was much the same with both teams trying to play attacking football on a pitch which cut up as the game went on. Nathan Hoole again showed his goalkeeping prowess with some sprawling, finger-tip saves.

Levi Hoole finally got his just reward when he blasted the ball home in the final minutes.

Defenders Shane Featherstone and Alex Rocket were the pick of the Rise side.

FENITON RES 6 BEER ALBION RES 1

Division Five
BEER Albion Reserves were well beaten by a strong Feniton side at a windy Acland Park on Saturday afternoon writes Mike Adkin. Beer fell behind in the second minute.

Defensive errors saw the hosts lead 4-0 at half time.

Beer created more chances in the second half, and pulled one back in the 81st minute through Sam White.

White came close again minutes later, but two late Feniton strikes sealed an emphatic win. Billy Parnell (3) Jon French, John Phillips and Jamie Doidge shared the Fenny goals.

AXMINSTER TOWN 3RDS 1

KENTISBEARE RESERVES 3
Division Nine
AXMINSTER slipped to their first defeat of the season against a well organised Kentisbeare side.

The Tigers conceded after eight minutes and again after half and hour to go in at half time 2-0 down. They pulled one back courtesy of an own goal 12 minutes from time.

But a forty yard strike from the visitors rounded off the scoring late on.

MILLWEY RES 2 UPTOTTERY RES 4

Division Five
MILLWEY stunned second placed Uptonery by opening up a 2-0 lead.

The first was a stunning strike from Henry Alexander Mitchell while the second came courtesy of a clever chip by Matt Beechey.

The visitors pulled one back before half time and in the second-half their superior fitness and stamina began to tell and three well taken goals wrapped up the match.

D&E round-up

with Collin Goodwin
SEATON TOWN hopes of a quarter final slot in the Throgmorton Devon Premier cup were ended in their third round by a 2-0 defeat against SWPL NEWTON ABBOT SPURS.

A goal in either half both from John Chisholm undid Seaton who paid the penalty for not being able to take penalties last week. Premier leaders NEWTOWN had to work like trojans to better CHARD TOWN 2-1. Two Corey O'Donoghue goals either side of a Chard equaliser won it for Newtown.

Second place FENITON were 2-0 winners at NEWTON ST CYRES with Louie Dyer and Kieran Johnson scoring, but Dan Norman missed a penalty.

The big news of the week came from SIDBURY UNITED who have withdrawn from the Premier Division. The League have yet to ratify the news but it should be endorsed at next week's management meeting.

Both UPTOTTERY and the UNIVERSITY remain unbeaten in Division One after a 1-1 draw.

SIDMOUTH TOWN went nap against WESTEXE without reply.

In Division Two leaders EXETER UNIVERSITY, helped by two penalties, won 3-2 against LYME REGIS whose replies came from Mark Bailey and Declan Ellis.

CHERITON FITZPAINE beat AXMOUTH UNITED 2-1 in Division Three with Dean Pidgion and Alex McDonald goals, but MoM was Ben Clements.

Third place HONITON TOWN were 4-1 winners at second placed BAMPOTON in Division Four, Lewis White getting the home goal but the Ponies had Johnny Lacey sent off when it was 1-1.

Division Five leaders OTTERTON accounted for ALPHINGTON 4-2, with Matt Lidstone 2, Adam Rolls and Matt Thomas scored. Tom Williams and Tom Collins both scored twice for OTTERTON ST MARY who overpowered HATHERLEIGH 7-1. Jordan Rogers, Benjamin Evans and Jake Allen also scored.

The liveliest match of the day came in Division Seven where ELMORE drew 3-3 at OFFWELL RANGERS.

PERRY STREET LEAGUE

by Howard Larcombe

HAWKCHURCH United extended their unbeaten run to 10 matches with a strong finish to Saturday's 6-2 victory over Combe A.

Gavin Herrod put the Hawks ahead only for The Saints to level.

Tom Chubb restored the lead before half-time only but the visitors pegged them back to 2-2 soon after the turnaround.

That's the way it stayed until the 75th minute when Josh Short put the hosts ahead again.

The woodwork came to the aid of Combe three times, but the hosts weren't to be denied and eased home with further strikes from Gavin Herrod, Dan Richards and MoM Jamie Harris.

The Hawks are now six points clear at the top of Division One. Next up is Saturday's visit by title rivals Misterton (2pm).

Down in Division Two new signing Fabio grabbed a hat-trick and Jack Mural was also on the scoresheet as FARWAY UNITED brought a welcome end to their five-game losing streak with a 5-2 win at Winsham Utd Reserves.

Farway head off for a first ever trip to Kingsbury Episcopi on Saturday.

Finally, after a postponement at Halstock at the weekend, FARWAY UNITED RESERVES travel to face Crewkerne Rangers Reserves on Saturday.

Merriott's Bradley earns County squad call-up

HONITON with Julie Grant

HONITON men played in some exciting games last week. In the County Trophy they defeated SIDMOUTH 99-61, top rink Peter Baker, Eddie Sharman, Mike Dart & Terry House with a resounding 34-13 win.

In the Over 60 league TORBAY won on one rink, drew on another but the Honiton's away men won on both rinks so well done to Alan Fuller, Ken Clarke, Tony Tooley & Trevor Pipe and Gerry Stafrace, Denis Hillyear, Mike Smith & Malcolm Seaborne.

In the County Top Club competition against MID DEVON the result rested on the last end of the fours. Honiton lost the four wood singles away and the triples, but at home Peter Baker won the two wood singles 21-19 and Tony Tooley & Trevor Pipe won 25-16.

The fours of Steve Coles, Pete Goodwin, Mike Smith & Malcolm Seaborne were two down going into the 21st end but couldn't turn it around so Honiton lost by two events to three.

Festive fishermen

SEVENTEEN Ilminster AA members fished their Xmas Fayre at Dillington Pond recently.

Justin Charles had the best weight on the day with six big skimmers, a nice perch plus some smaller fish for 15lb caught on the feeder with caster hookbait from peg 17. Jamie Rich was second with 9lb 15oz of quality roach, rudd and perch on the pole and caster from peg 14, and in third place was Steve Hurdor with 9lb 7oz of skimmers and perch on the feeder from peg 1.

After the match all the anglers enjoyed a lovely buffet at the Royal Oak, Ilminster and each took home a prize.

The club donated the peg fees from the match to The Brain Tumour Charity in memory of Karen Rich.

The club wished to thank Robin Cox for organising a great match and getting the fantastic prizes and a huge thanks to Steve and Cindy at the Oak for laying on a lovely spread.

For round five of the Royal Oak league, 10 Ilminster AA members found the River Isle in near perfect condition on Sunday and some really good weights were recorded with lots of small fish featuring in catches.

The top three weights all came from the Hambridge section with Graham Field leading the way with 16lb 11oz of roach and perch on the short pole and caster from the first swim above the bridge.

Robin Cox was second from peg H3 with a similar catch weighing 15lb 4oz and in third place was Jamie Rich from the peg next door with 11lb 15oz of mainly roach.

After five matches and dropping the worst result, Graham Field tops the league with four points followed by Robin Cox and Justin Charles on eight.

Result; 1 - Graham Field (Taunton) - 16lb 11oz, 2 - Robin Cox (Ilminster) - 15lb 4oz, 3 - Jamie Rich (Against Men and Fish) - 11lb 15oz.

Sections; A - Justin Charles (Ilminster) - 9lb 3oz, B - Ashley Tomkins (Tackleuk) - 7lb 14oz.
